

1. THE NEXT GREAT LEADER

The Next Great Leader event is an emerging CEO's Masterclass, crafted for high-potential young business and corporate executives with established interest in Entrepreneurship who seek to build businesses that can create jobs, increase incomes, reduce poverty and make the world a better place.

It features as speakers an array of highly successful business leaders who have mastered the art and science of C-Suite Leadership.

It starts with the emerging CEOs breakfast meeting and breaks into an academic session and concludes with a mentorship class.

2. MELT

The Management, Entrepreneurship, Leadership Training (MELT) is design to produce a elite group of business leaders who can lead change, drive innovation and solve complex problems.

Module 1: Management

Every leader needs strategic management skills to lead change, drive innovation & grow organisations. This programme is intended to develop strategic management skills of young leaders.

Module 2: Entrepreneurship

This is a social enterprise programme that seeks to develop a new generation of social entrepreneurs who can create jobs, increase incomes and reduce poverty

Module 3: Leadership

This leadership potential management programme seeks to discover, develop and deploy a new generation of servant leaders educated to global standards who can lead innovation.

Module 4: Training

This training comprises 120hours of learning including 40hours of guided learning plus 60hours of group work, group presentation, takehome assignment and books and journal reviews.

3. (GLAD)

The Governance and Leadership for Africa's Development (GLAD) is composed of four main courses, mainly; Governance, Leadership, Africa and Development.

Module 1: Governance

This course will review the origin and background of the concept of governance and the critical analysis of the concept of good governance and its correlation with democratic stability, economic growth and development

Module 2: Leadership

Exercising leadership in politics is an art and a skill on its own. The goal of this course is to provide a better understanding of those arts and skills, and to assess their proper role in a development oriented democratic political system.

Module 3: Development

This course is set out to understand and analyse the processes that are transforming people's lives around the world and how it can be applied in Africa. Participants will study key development issues and ideas, and develop skills to help solve development problems. .

Module 4: Africa

This is a diagnostic course that aims at identifying and finding solutions to Africa's numerous problems and developmental issues. Including corruption, war, disease, poverty and Public health difficulties.

4. (CLAP)

Christian Leadership Advancement Programme (CLAP) is composed of four main modules, mainly; pastoral leadership development course, the lay leaders course, youth in leadership programme & women in ministry course.

Module 1: Pastoral Leadership Development Programme

The programme seeks to keep Pastors abreast with the 21 Century Knowledge Revolution by providing cutting-edge contemporary leadership programmes designed to complement bible school education.

Module 2: The Lay Leaders Programme

The programme is intended to build the leadership competence of non-pastoral leaders in church including elders, deacons, administrators & church workers.

Module 3: Youth In Leadership Programme

This is a young leader's programme designed to equip and provide strategic leadership development training for youth leaders.

Module 4: Women In Ministry Programme

The programme is intended to develop the leadership potential of women in ministry